Tariff For Revenue Only.

If a tariff for revenue only means anything at all, it means a reduction of the present tariff so as to create an increased foreign importation, otherwise there could be no increase of revenue.

An increase in foreign imports means a corresponding decrease of domestic manufactures, a closing up of American factories, and the loss of employment to the army of operatives engaged therein.

This means that a larger number of our citizens must engage in agricultural pursuits, and become producers instead of consumers.

This means a great increase in the production of agricultural products, with a corresponding decrease in the demand. This means low prices for the farmer's products, and with American shops closed and home competition killed, it means that the farmer will not only have to dispose of whatever he may produce at ruinously low prices, but he will be at the mercy of foreign combinations of capitalists, who can and will fix their own prices for their own goods. Give us the democratic reform tariff for revenue only, and the farming community will suffer at each end of the bargain, by being compelled to sell in a depressed market, and buy in a dear one. No class of citizens would suffer as largely by this scheme as the farmer and the day-laborer. It would be ruin to them.

Should the democratic ideas of free trade, or of a revenue tariff prevail in this country, one of the principal productions of the country would be a large and constantly increasing crop of mortgages.

Gentlemen:—For years I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and could get no relief (having tried everything which was recommended) until, acting on the advice of a friend, who had been benefited by Brown's Iron Bitters, I tried a bottle, with most surprising results. Previous to taking Brown's Iron Bitters, everything I ate distressed me, and I suffered greatly from a burning sensation in the stomach, which was unbearable. Since taking Brown's Iron Bitters, all my troubles are at an end. Can eat any time without any disagreeable results. I am practically another person. Mrs. W. J. FLYNN, 30 Maverick St., E. Boston.
